SVU
Conference & Marketplace
2023 • NEW ORLEANS

Deadline: March 20, 2023

CALL FOR PAPERS

Don't miss this opportunity to contribute to the vascular profession and be recognized at the 2023 Society for Vascular Ultrasound Annual Conference, a gathering of vascular ultrasound professionals from around the world.

SVU
SOCIETY FOR VASCULAR ULTRASOUND
Research • Education • Advocacy

Abstract Submission Opening Soon!

August 23-26, 2023
Hyatt Regency New Orleans
New Orleans, Louisiana

www.SVU.org

Submission Details

Abstracts must be submitted via SVU's online abstract platform. For instructions on how to submit, please visit SVU.org/SVUabstracts. Once submitted the system will send you a confirmation email noting that you have completed the submission process. Any abstract not submitted online will not be considered.

A presenter is required to be an SVU member or be sponsored by an SVU member. Exception: Student Awards (Student Oral Presentation Awards and Student Poster Presentation Award) and the Alex Chao, MD, Young Investigator Award does not need to be submitted or sponsored by a SVU Member.

1. If the abstract is accepted, one of the authors must present it at the 2023 SVU Annual Conference at the Hyatt Regency New Orleans in New Orleans, LA from August 23-26, 2023.

2. If the abstract is accepted for an oral clinical or oral scientific presentation at the 2023 SVU Annual Conference, the author must upload a manuscript to Sage Track via https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jvu by June 19, 2023. You are able to edit the manuscript before it is finalized and selected for publishing. Details to be provided in your acceptance letter. Do not send manuscripts to JVU editors.

Manuscript review is an essential part of the awards process; missing this deadline will make you ineligible for any SVU awards considered and your may not be allowed to present.

3. Scientific, oral clinical, oral case studies and poster presentations (scientific, clinical and case studies) will be considered for awards at the SVU Annual Conference. Manuscripts are only required for the oral scientific and oral clinical presentations.

4. Privacy of patients – Revealing the identity of patients in a public forum is against the law under HIPAA federal regulations. Please remove all patient's identification information (in slides, posters and any other part of the presentation, as well as the abstract). Do not include the name of an institution in the abstract text.

5. Abstracts that are primarily commercial in nature will not be accepted.

6. ABSTRACTS SUMISSIONS NOT ADHERING TO PUBLISHED SVU ABSTRACT FORMAT GUIDELINES WILL BE DISQUALIFIED AND RETURED TO THE SUBMITTING AUTHORS.

Abstract Evaluation

Abstracts are blinded before they are sent to the SVU Abstracts Subcommittee for scoring. Selection is based on the following criteria:

Originality and Content:
- Adequately describes new technique (or new application of old technique)

Language:
- Proper grammar, spelling and is well written

Abstract Structure and Overall Quality:
- Abstract reflects title
- Introduction/background provides relevant information
- Methods clearly stated
- Results presented clearly, logically and address the purpose
- Conclusions supported by the results

SVU
SOCIETY FOR VASCULAR ULTRASOUND
Research • Education • Advocacy

Abstract Deadline: March 20, 2023

Questions? Contact us at svuinfo@svu.org

All oral or poster presentation abstract submissions may be on the topic of your choice. Material must be original and not previously presented or published or accepted to be presented at any other conference. Case studies or a small series of patient studies are not usually considered for oral presentation, but are welcome for posters or case study sessions when offered at the SVU Annual Conference.

2023 Deadlines

Remember these deadlines for participation in the 2023 SVU Annual Conference:

March 20
Final day for abstracts to be submitted online

May 8
Notification by this date of acceptance of abstracts

June 19
Manuscripts due for all accepted scientific and clinical oral presentations

Questions? Email us at svuinfo@svu.org

Awards

Submitted abstracts that meet the deadline dates will be considered for the following SVU awards:

Alex Chao, MD, Young Investigator Award
Oral presentation of scientific or clinical research conducted by a Medical Student, Resident or Fellow of a vascular surgery, vascular medicine, neurology, neuroimaging, radiology, cardiology or phlebology program, or other related discipline with a focused interested in peripheral vascular ultrasound or PhD candidate in a related field with an interest in vascular ultrasound. The abstract should be the result of scientific or clinical research that is peripheral vascular ultrasound related and would be interest to SVU membership.

D.E. Strandness, MD, Scientific Award
Oral presentation of scientific research in vascular technology. This award is in honor of the "Father of Noninvasive Diagnosis," D.E. Strandness, MD.

Excellence in Oral Clinical Presentation Award
Oral presentation of clinical significance in vascular technology.

Excellence in Scientific Poster Presentation Award
Displays of text, photographs, charts of graphs with an opportunity to discuss the work with your peers on a one-to-one basis.

Excellence in Case Study Poster Presentation Award
Case reports of rare or unusual findings, either normal or pathologic, will be considered for presentation.

Excellence in Case Study Oral Presentation Award
Case reports or rare or unusual findings, either normal or pathologic, will be considered for oral presentation.

Physician Presenter Award
Award recognizes a physician member primary author of an oral presentation at the Annual Conference

First-Time Presenter
Award recognizes a technologist member primary author and first-time presenter of an oral presentation at the Annual Conference.

STUDENT AWARDS

Student Oral Presentation Award
Oral presentation by a student who is the primary author and presenter of a paper in vascular technology.

Student Poster Presentation Awards
Case reports of rare or unusual findings, either normal or pathologic, will be considered for presentation.

Need help with your abstract?

For further information on how to write an abstract, please visit, www.svu.org/SVUabstracts.

If you would like an abstract mentor assigned to you, please email SVUMentoring@svu.org and SVU and an experienced author or member of the Abstracts Subcommittee will be assigned to help you and answer any questions you may have about writing your abstract.

Abstract Submission Guidelines

Abstracts
Abstracts should be brief (200-300 words), but a comprehensive overview of your clinical or scientific research. Each abstract must include:

1. Introduction
2. Methods
3. Results
4. Conclusion

Please Note: Failure to include details on these four essential parts and submitting an abstract that exceeds the 300 words limited will result in the Abstracts Subcommittee not judging your abstract. Please don't include tables, figures or graphs in your abstract submission.

Oral Case Study or Poster Abstracts
Case reports or unusual findings, either normal or pathologic should be submitted for either oral case study or poster presentation. These reports should contain:

1. Introductory Paragraph
2. Case Study Description
3. Conclusion

Submitting Your Abstract

Your abstract MUST contain the following important information to be considered:

- Title
- Primary Author's first name, last name and degrees/ certifications. Follow this with your institution name, city and state (and country if submitted from outside the US).
- Author Category (indicate all that apply):
  - First-time Presenter
  - Student*
  - Physician
  - Technologist/Sonographer
  - Medical Student, Resident, Fellow or PhD Candidate

Student must provide a letter on school letterhead from the program director or school registrar indicating that you are a student in their vascular ultrasound program.

- Presenter
  Indicate who will make the presentation at the Annual Conference.

Provide the presenter's SVU ID number. If the presenter is note SVU member, provide the name, telephone number and SVU ID number of the presenter's SVU sponsor.

- Abstract Synopsis
- Contact Information
  At the end of the abstract, provide the names, degrees/ certification, job titles, affiliations, addresses, phone and fax numbers, and e-mail address of all authors of the abstract. NOTE: Only the presenter's name will be listed as the author in the program.

- Type of Presentation
  Indicate whether the presentation is a paper (oral presentation) or a poster presentation. Please make note that all oral presentation abstracts not accepted for presentation are automatically considered for the poster presentation.

- Indicate which category you want your abstract considered for presentation:
  - Scientific Oral
  - Clinical Oral
  - Case Study Oral
  - Poster Scientific
  - Poster Case Study

Submission Details

Abstracts must be submitted via SVU's online abstract platform. For instructions on how to submit, please visit SVU. org/SVUabstracts. Once submitted the system will send you a confirmation email noting that you have completed the submission process. Any abstract not submitted online will not be considered.

A presenter is required to be an SVU member or be sponsored by an SVU member. Exception: Student Awards (Student Oral Presentation Awards and Student Poster Presentation Award) and the Alex Chao, MD, Young Investigator Award does not need to be submitted or sponsored by a SVU Member.

1. If the abstract is accepted, one of the authors must present it a the 2023 SVU Annual Conference at the Hyatt Regency New Orleans in New Orleans, LA from August 23-26, 2023.

2. If the abstract is accepted for an oral clinical or oral scientific presentation at the 2023 SVU Annual Conference, the author must upload a manuscript to Sage Track via https://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jvu by June 19, 2023. You are able to edit the manuscript before it is finalized and selected for publishing. Details to be provided in your acceptance letter. Do not send manuscripts to JVU editors.

Manuscript review is an essential part of the awards process; missing this deadline will make you ineligible for any SVU awards considered and your may not be allowed to present.

3. Scientific, oral clinical, oral case studies and poster presentations (scientific, clinical and case studies) will be considered for awards at the SVU Annual Conference. Manuscripts are only required for the oral scientific and oral clinical presentations.

4. Privacy of patients – Revealing the identity of patients in a public forum is against the law under HIPAA federal regulations. Please remove all patient's identification information (in slides, posters and any other part of the presentation as well as the abstract). Do not include the name of an institution in the abstract text.

5. Abstracts that are primarily commercial in nature will not be accepted.

6. ABSTRACTS SUMISSIONS NOT ADHERING TO PUBLISHED SVU ABSTRACT FORMAT GUIDELINES WILL BE DISQUALIFIED AND RETURED TO THE SUBMITTING AUTHORS.

Abstract Evaluation

Abstracts are blinded before they are sent to the SVU Abstracts Subcommittee for scoring. Selection is based on the following criteria:

Originality and Content:
- Adequately describes new technique (or new application of old technique)

Language:
- Proper grammar, spelling and is well written

Abstract Structure and Overall Quality
- Abstract reflects title
- Introduction/background provides relevant information
- Methods clearly stated
- Results presented clearly, logically and address the purpose
- Conclusions supported by the results

Abstract Deadline: March 20, 2023

Questions? Contact us at svuinfo@svu.org.